FROM MAY 11. TO MAY 18. 1738.

LONDON, January 30.

An Account of the unfortunate Accident which lately happen'd to the Spaw of Scarborough.

THE Spaw, as to its Situation, lay South from the Town on the Sands, and fronting the Sea to the Eaſt, under a high Cliff on the Back of it Weſt, the Top of the Cliff is above the High-Water Level 54 Yards, and all about a Quarter of a Mile from the Town.

The Steith or Wharf adjoining to the Spaw Houſe, which was a large Body of Stone, and bound by Timbers, and was a Fence againſt the Sea, for the Security of the Houſe, was 76 Feet long, and 14 Feet high, and in weight by computation 2463 Tuns. The Houſe and Buildings were upon a Level with the Steith or Wharf, at the North End of which, and near adjoining to it, upon a ſmall riſe above the Level Sands, and at the Foot of the Stairs that lead up to the Top of the ſaid Steith, and to the Houſe, were the Spaw Wells.

On Wedneſday the 28th of December laſt, in the Morning a great Crack was heard from the Cellar of the Spaw Houſe, and upon Search, the Cellar was found rent, but at that time, there was no farther notice taken. The Night following, the Inhabitants heard another Crack, and in the Morning entering the Cellar, they were ſurpriz'd to ſee the ſtrange Poſture it ſtood in, and then got ſeveral Gentlemen to view it, who were of opinion, that the Houſe would ſoon fall, and adviſ'd them to get their Goods out, but they did not do it.

On Thurſday following, between Two and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, there was another Crack heard, and the Top of the Cliff behind it rent 224 Yards in length, and 36 extreme Breadth, which was all immediately in motion, ſlowly deſcending, and continu'd ſo till it was dark. The Ground thus rent, contain'd about an Acre of Paſture Land, and Cattle then feeding thereon, and was on a Level with the main Land, but ſunk down near perpendicular 17 Yards. The Sides of the Cliff neareſt the Spaw ſtand as before, but rent and broke in many Places, and forced forwards to the Sea; the Ground when ſunk lay upon a Level, and the Cattle the next Morning feeding on it, the main Land being as a Wall on the Weſt, and ſome Part of the Side of the Cliff as a Wall on the Eaſt, and the whole to a View, is at preſent ſuch a confus'd Proſpect, as is ſcarce to be expreſs'd.

The Rent of the Top of the Cliff as aforeſaid from the main Land, was 224 Yards. The Rent continued from each End down the Side of the Cliff to the Sands, was meaſur'd on the Sands from one End to the other 268 Yards, viz. 143 South of the Steith and Spaw Wells, and 100 to the North of the Spaw.

As the Ground ſunk, the Earth or Sand which the People us'd to walk on under the Cliff, aroſe upwards out of its natural Poſition for above 100 Yards in length, on each ſide of the Steith, North and South, and was 6 and in ſome Places 7 Yards above its former level; the Spaw Wells roſe with it, but as ſoon as it began to riſe, the Water at the Spaw Well ceas'd running, and was gone.

The Ground thus riſen was 26 Yards broad; the Steith, which was computed at 2463 Tons, roſe entire and whole, 12 Feet higher than its former Poſition, (but rent a little in the front) and was forc'd forwards towards the Sea 20 Yards.

The moſt reaſonable Account that at preſent is given for this uncommon Phœnomenon, and the Occaſion of the Deſtruction of the Steith, Spaw Houſes, and the Loſs of the Spaw Spring, is as follows.

When this Steith, or Wharf, was lately rebuilt, (it being thrown down by the Violence of the Sea) Mr. Vincent, Engineer for building of the new Pier at Scarborough, was deſir'd to rebuild the Steith at the Spaw; and digging a Trench to lay this Foundation thereof, with great Difficulty clear'd it of Water; and when he had done it, could, at ſeveral Places thereof, very eaſily thruſt his Stick or Cane up to the Handle, from which it's concluded, that all the Earth under the Steith, was of a porous, ſpungy, and ſwampy Nature, and is much the ſame below the Foundation of the Spaw-Houſe, and all under the ſides of the Cliff adjoining, as well South as North.

Allowing this to be Fact, we may naturally conclude, that the ſolid Earth ſinking on the top of the Cliff, as aforemention'd, which was of ſo vaſt a Weight as by Computation amounts to 261,360 Tons, and preſſing gradually upon and into the ſwampy boggy Earth beneath, and under it, would of courſe, and did raiſe the Earth and Sands as before noticed, and ruin'd the Steith or Wharf, and the Houſe, and for the preſent deprives us of the Spaw.

Since this moſt unhappy Accident, which could not in the Nature of Things have been prevented, diligent Search has been made, and is ſtill continu'd to be making, with great Application, to find out the Spaw Water; and great Numbers of Labourers are employ'd for that purpoſe to remove the Earth and Sands, and clear the Ground where they imagine the Spring is moſt likely to be found; and it's hop'd, that none who know the Virtue of this Spaw, and the great Good it has done to thouſands of Invalids, and the Health and Pleaſure it afforded to all that drank it, but will heartily wiſh Succeſs to their Endeavours.

Feb. 1 They write from Vienna, That Count Seckendorff's Affairs are pretty much in the ſame State as they have been for ſome Time. It's certain, that the Certificates which have been ſent from thoſe Perſons who had the Direction of Proviſions in Servia, have been very favourable to him, and have utterly deſtroy'd the Report of his having apply'd great Part thereof to his own Advantage. The Emperor has tranſmitted the Sentence that the Council of War pronounc'd againſt Major General Doxat to Belgrade, the Contents of which are not certainly known; tho' it's ſaid, that his Imperial Majeſty has moderated it, only obliging him to quit his Employments, and retire from the hereditary Dominions.

The

The Emperor will certainly, in a little time, publickly acknowledge Don Carlos King of the Two Sicilies; that Spain will accede in Form to the Treaty concluded between their Imperial and moſt Chriſtian Majeſties; and that there is a Marriage on the Tapis between the Infant Don Philip and the Princeſs Maria-Anna-Sophia, ſecond Daughter of the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony.

From Geneva, that the Count de Lautrec, and the Repreſentatives of Berne and Zurich, have juſt determin'd their Mediation, and have ſent the Plan of the Pacification to their reſpective Maſters to be approv'd, immediately after which, it will be render'd Publick.

Feb. 4. The following is an Account of the Manner the Mediation of France, Great Britain, and the Srates General, was ſettled, to negociate a Peace between the Grand Signior, the Emperor, and the Czarina.

The Griffier Fagel read in the Aſſembly of the States General a Letter from M. Swart, Reſident of their High Mightineſſes at the Court of Ruſſia, wherein that Miniſter ſays, Count Oſterman had acquainted him that the Emperor of the Romans had communicated to the Czarina by his Miniſter, that the Grand Signior had requeſted the Mediation of the Court of France, which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had readily accepted, in caſe the Emperor and Czarina would agree to ſuch Mediation: That his Imperial Majeſty did not heſitate to accept thereof, and earneſtly ſollicited the Court of Ruſſia to do the like. The Empreſs, in anſwer to theſe Sollicitations, ſaid, ſhe heard with Pleaſure that France would uſe her good Offices to terminate the Differences which ſubſiſt between Ruſſia and the Ottoman Porte, to which ſhe would readily concur, provided the Emperor would at the ſame time ask the Mediation of the Maritime Powers, with whom her Imperial Majeſty had always liv'd in perfect Friendſhip and good Underſtanding.

That Count Oſterman had receiv'd Orders to acquaint the Britiſh and Dutch Miniſters herewith, and to tell them, that the Czarina hop'd, from the ſtrict Friendſhip which had always ſubſiſted between her and thoſe Powers, that they would readily grant their deſir'd Mediation, and that without Loſs of Time they would ſend proper Inſtructions to their Ambaſſadors reſiding at the Porte, to act in concert with that of France.

After their High Mightineſſes had conſider'd of the ſaid Letter, they reſolv'd to write to their Reſident at Peterſburg, that it was with the greateſt Pleaſure they were inform'd of the Empreſs's favourable Diſpoſition to Peace, and that they are highly oblig'd to her Imperial Majeſty, for the Confidence with which ſhe honours them. That their High Mightineſſes look upon it as a new Inſtance of her Majeſty's Friendſhip towards their Republick, and for which they ſhall not be wanting on all Occaſions to make the moſt ſuitable Returns. That the States General had taken all Opportunities to obtain an Accommodation between Ruſſia and the Porte, but that they had met with inſurmountable Difficulties therein, notwithſtanding which, they had renew'd their Orders to M. Kalkoen their Ambaſſador at the Porte, to take Advantage of the leaſt favourable Diſpoſition which might appear in the Porte towards Peace. That their High Mightineſſes finding that their good Offices were acceptable to the Czarina, they had reſolv'd to diſpatch the neceſſary Orders immediately to their Ambaſſador to apply himſelf at the Porte, jointly with the Ambaſſadors of Great Britain and France, to negociate a ſolid and laſting Peace.

The Britiſh Reſident at Petersburg, has wrote to the ſame Effect to his Court, which Prince Cantimir has confirm'd, and aſſur'd, that the Empreſs his Miſtreſs will enter into no Negociations of Peace, without the Interpoſition of the Maritime Powers; and that his Britannick Majeſty had ſent the neceſſary Orders to his Miniſter at Conſtantinople, and to Mr. Trevor at the Hague, to acquaint their High Mightineſſes therewith, and to act in Concert with them in every reſpect.

London, March 4. We are informed, That there is a Propoſal on foot, for an Application to Parliament for the Payment of the Debts of their late Majeſties King William, Queen Anne and King George I. and that a Scheme is propoſed for the raiſing a ſufficient Sum of Money for that purpoſe, without levying any Tax, or charging the ſame upon any of the preſent Funds, for which Reaſon it is not doubted but it will meet with Approbation.

SIR,

ZENGER's TRIAL having been lately publiſhed in Great-Britain and Ireland, with an extraordinary Applauſe, I thought proper to ſend you the following abſtracts, taken from ſeveral private letters here in town, which give a particular account of the reception It met with in London. Every true Lover of Pennſylvania will receive a ſenſible pleaſure, when he is informed that Mr. Hamilton has acquired a high Reputation at home, on account of his learned and generous Defence of the RIGHTS of Mankind at New-York: For nothing can reflect greater honour on this Government, than the Praiſes which our Mother-Country has ſo liberally beſtowed on a Gentleman, who has annually preſided in our Aſſemblies for above theſe Ten Years paſt. His Character is now raiſed much above the reach of ignorance, envy or malice: Therefore BE IT KNOWN to all his Detractors, of whatever ſize or denomination they be, who have ſignalized themſelves in the Mercury, and without daring to own their names have hitherto ſpit their poiſon in the dark, That they may from henceforth and at all times hereafter, peaceably and quietly crawl out of their holes even in open day, and CHUSE Him in their uſual Jargon and Gibberiſh; Without the Let, Suit, Trouble, Moleſtation or Denial of any perſon or perſons whatſoever. As it would be highly imprudent in any man of ſenſe to deſcend ſo low, as to take the leaſt notice of ſuch ſcribling Reptiles, So it would be altogether impertinent to offer any thing in juſtification of a Character that ſtands in need of none; notwithſtanding that it has been ſo often attacked by every infamous method, that Rage, or Spite, or Envy, or Cowardice could ſuggeſt: For THE DEFENDER OF THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS, by the Strength of his own Genius, has, on the nobleſt Foundation, that of promoting the Good of Mankind, erected to himſelf a Monument, which will tranſmit his Memory with Honour, to lateſt Poſterity.

London, February. 1737,8.

'WE have been lately amuſed with ZENGER's TRIAL, which has become the common Topic of 'Converſation in all the Coffee-Houſes, both at the Court-'End of the Town and in the City. During my Obſervation, there has not been any piece, publiſhed here, ſo greedily read and ſo highly applauded. —— The greateſt 'Men at the Bar have openly declared, that the Subject of 'Libels was never ſo well treated in Weſtminſter-Hall, as 'at New-York. —— Our political Writers of different Factions, who never agreed in any thing elſe, have mentioned the Trial in their public Writings with an Air of 'Rapture and Triumph. —— a Goliath in Learning and 'Politics gave his opinion of Mr. Hamilton's Argument in 'theſe terms, If It is not LAW it is BETTER than 'LAW, it Ought to be LAW, and Will Always be 'LAW wherever Juſtice prevails. —— The Tryal has 'been reprinted four times in three months, and there has 'been a greater demand for it, by all ranks and degrees of 'People, than there has been known for any of the moſt 'celebrated Performances of our greateſt Geniuſes. —— 'We look upon Zenger's Advocate, as a glorious Aſſertor of 'Public Liberty and of the Rights and Privileges of Britons.—— 'I had almoſt forgot to tell you, that there has been alſo 'lately printed here ſome Remarks on Zenger's Defence. 'It is ſaid (in the preface) that they were wrote by two e-'minent Lawyers in one of the Plantations. But (not-'withſtanding a good Book generally makes a bad Anſwer 'ſell) It has ſo happened that the few Perſons, who out of 'curioſity bought the Remarks, have been ill-natured e-'nough to damn the piece as a ſtupid, ſenſeleſs performance; 'ſo that the greater part of the impreſſion remains unſold, 'to the no ſmall mortification of the Bookſeller, &c.

BOSTON, May 1.

Extract of a Letter to Mr. Peter Luce, Merchant in Boston.

Honoured Sir,

I AM ſorry to acquaint you I do not know when we ſhall get from hence: My Ship is condemned in manner following; That the People of Providence make a Practice to go to the neighbouring Iſlands to cut Brazilletto Wood, which Iſlands they ſay belongs to his Catholick Majeſty: And further, that the Iſlands of St. Chriſtophers and Providence belongs to him, and that he has ordered them to be diſinhabited and laid waſte, ſo that had I none of that Wood, my Ship and Cargo was liable to Confiſcation for loading in St. Kitts. I have made a Demand of Liberty, my Papers, and a Copy of Condemnation, but am denied all of them; only the Governor ſays he'll ſend her away when he thinks fit, but I believe not until demanded in our Sovereign's Name by a Ship of War. I together with Capt. Henry Ware of Briſtol, are kept Priſoners on board the Diſpatch, Capt. Philip Delamotte. My Man Thomas Proving is going to Cadiz in the next Ship, who will make Oath, together with as many of the People as goes, of what has been tranſacted, and is to ſend a Certificate to you, and one to Uncle Piron. We do not want Proviſions ſuch as the Country affords. Pray write to St. Kitts an Account, for this is done with great Difficulty, ſo that I cannot write to them myſelf.

I am, Sir, your Nephew,

Havanna, Nov. 14. and Humble Servant
